

LEADERSHIP HEADQUARTERS

My Values List

STEP ONE: Circle 15 values that resonate to you.

Accomplishment	Control	Independence	Religion
Achievement	Cooperation	Improving society	Respectful
Adventure	Courageous	Innovative	Responsible
Affection	Courteous	Integrity	Restrained
Affectionate	Creativity	Intellectual	Salvation
Affiliation	Dependable	Involvement	Self-controlled
Ambitious	Disciplined	Imagination	Self-reliance
Assisting others	Economic security	Joy	Self-respect
Authority	Effective	Leisurely	Sincerity
Autonomy	Equality	Logical	Spirituality
Beauty	Excitement	Love	Stability
Belonging	Fame	Loving	Status
Broad-minded	Family happiness	Mature love	Success
Caring	Family security	Security	Symbolic
Challenge	Forgiving	Nature	Taking risks
Cheerful	Free choice	Obedient	Teamwork
Clean	Freedom	Order	Tidy
Comfortable Life	Friendship	Peace	Tender
Companionship	Fun	Personal development	Tranquillity
Compassion	Genuineness	Pleasure	Wealth
Competent	Happiness	Polite	Winning
Competitiveness	Health	Power	Wisdom
Contribution to others	Helpfulness	Pride	other (list below)
Conformity	Honesty	Rational
Contentedness	Hope	Recognition

Are there other values that you would like to include but are not on the list?

STEP 2 MY TEN MOST IMPORTANT VALUES

- | | |
|----|-----|
| 1. | 6. |
| 2. | 7. |
| 3. | 8. |
| 4. | 9. |
| 5. | 10. |

STEP 3 MY MOST IMPORTANT VALUES

Values come to life in your leadership. Now tighten up the list you created on the previous page and pick five core values that you feel strongly about around who you are as a leader. You may choose other values that are not on this list.

Place them in Table 3.2 and answer the questions in the matrix.

DIAGRAM 102.1 DIFFERENCES BETWEEN MANAGEMENT AND LEADERSHIP

VALUES List your values here	DEFINITION OF VALUES List your definition of these values	HOW DO YOU SEE THESE VALUES PLAYING OUT IN YOUR LEADERSHIP?
1.
2.
3.
4.
5.		